

23 Orleans Students In Flight

ORLEANS — Operation Airlift sent 23 Orleans high school students back to work this week. The Klamath - Trinity Unified School District has arranged board and room to be provided for students from Orleans, Pecwan and Weitchpec for the balance of the school year.

High school students from the isolated Red Cap side of the Klamath River were brought to Orleans. A large U.S. Army banana helicopter came to the airstrip, picked up a load of new desks, took them to the Assembly of God Church and was back in a few minutes to load the students and their luggage for the run to Hoopa.

Those who left on the copter were: Judy Johnson, Gene Mace, Harry Molier, Wilfred (Sonny) Ferris, Linda Johnson, Betty Offield, Walter Graham, Raymond Grubbs, Henrietta Horn, Charlene McLaughlin, Linda and Mary Chamberlain, Jim Clark, Mike Gerving, Danny Knudsen, Lenora Boughton, Leon Offield, Tom Stokesberry, Marvin Mullen, Charles Collins, Randy Gibbons, Terri Gibbons and Linda Boughton.
