

Orleans Hit by Flood and Fire

These are the charred remains of the new elementary school at Orleans which burned to the ground at the same time the community was in the throes of the worst flood in recorded history of the area last Christmas week.