

ishfir – to skin an animal. Deer hide scraping is part of the tanning process púufich - deer. This is a male deer, which is also called a buck.

vuhvúha – Deerskin Dance

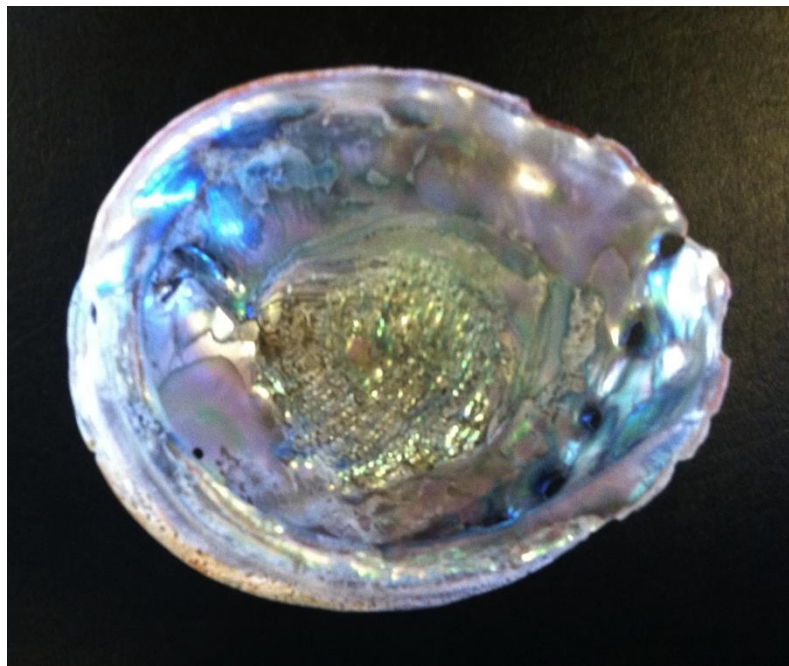

xâapish - Brush Dance

pay sáruk - otter

akvakira – quiver (otter) yuxtháran - abalone shell yuxtháran - abalone

yáfus – woman's dress Regalia with abalone shell íikiv – necklace; têenvas – earrings necklace and earrings with abalone shell kaschiip - porcupine

wolf moss

ipaha'asaxêem - type of lichen, used to die porcupine quills yellow Literally: 'tree seaweed' kaschiip (porcupine) quills dyed kaschiip (porcupine) quills Headband or halo worn by girls in Jump Dance (sahvúhvuh).

Jump Dance (sahvúhvuh) women's regalia – note hair minks and Purity Dancer halo